W The incident in mind occurred while he was ceaching football clse where—to be specific, at Cornell university. To be more specific, it was while Al Sharp was ceaching the Cornell football team of 1913—the first Cornell team Al Sharp ever ing to develop in his players a mensuccess of his team. The more success of the coaches place mind conditioning on an equal footing with the 1813 Cornell schedule—the annual contest with Cornell's traditioning on an equal footing with the physical and strategical in some instances they grant it a superior place.

Twinty tirdes in the twellty years prior to the then approaching battle the learns of these two great universities had met on the football cridiren, and only once had Cornell scored a victory. "Going to Philadelphia for the annual slaughter,"
